Winter Beach

Probably there is no stretch of sandbar with more great memories than this summer place at Angelica. Quietly waiting through the late fall, winter and early spring, these toys of summer will draw like a magnet on the minds of the owners. Now, in the waning days of January, the beach is piled with the debris of winter storms, anticipated by the folk who love it in the warm sun of summer but always a great place to walk and enjoy the great sweep of Buzzards Bay that is the primary feature of this shore.

Three articles have been proposed for the May 21st annual town meeting by the committee set up by the Board of Health to operate the town's sanitary landfill under the supervision of the Board of Health.

At the October 17, 1989 special town meeting to hear a proposal by SEMASS to take over operation of the landfill, voters approved formation of the committee to study alternative methods of operation. At that time, Selectmen also opposed takeover of the landfill operation and agreed more study should be made on alternatives.

The committee, comprised of Jarvis C. Stratton, Chairman, Daniel O. Mahoney, Barry Denham and Richard Barros, reported to Selectmen last Tuesday that they are now ready to get the plan in operation starting July 1, 1990 (the start of fiscal 1991 budget).

At the same time, if the plan is adopted by voters, an Enterprise Fund will be put into operation to use the fees collected to operate the landfill and to have a reserve fund to cap the landfill at a future time.

"We decided to go for the funding all at once," explained Mr. Mahoney, as he said "our intent is to try for a $500,000 eight-year, state house serial note which would have higher interest for a shorter period of time than a bond issue but would be easier to obtain and the processing fee would be less."

Mr. Stratton said, "We hope in the future the landfill can get into recycling and composting. Everyone is into recycling, except the market place. We won't make money, but we will break even and relieve some of the financial burden to the town."

Mr. Denham explained Mattapoisett produces about 14,000 cubic yards of trash per year. It would mean controlling the landfill by selling landfill space. The landfill operator can contract with private haulers. This amount is one-half the amount SEMASS talked about, but "we will make enough money to operate the landfill".

Mr. Denham continued and explained part of the $500,000 would be used to purchase: 1) standard equipment construction loader and not a specialized piece of equipment which would be expensive to maintain or resell; 2) a standard off-the-shelf building to house the expensive equipment; and 3) a scale house and office - all to be constructed outside the footprint of the landfill.

Mr. Mahoney said it is important to the town to contract usage. "We can do it ourselves according to the law (state DEP). We may need to increase the number of days the landfill is open to a minimum of four days per week."

Selectmen Chairman Bernard F. Talty and Selectmen William F. Hubbard and John N. DeCosta wholeheartedly endorsed the plan.

The first article asks voters to establish a separate account classified as an Enterprise Fund for a sanitary landfill facility of the town (which will include a sanitary landfill, a refuse transfer station, a resource recovery facility, a refuse composting plant, a dumping ground for refuse, and for its maintenance and operation, the Board of Health to be responsible for maintaining and operating the enterprise under the state statute.

The second article asks voters to appropriate a sum of money for construction of a new landfill facility building on property owned by the town and for purchase of new equipment and replacement parts, a refuse composting plant, a dumping ground for refuse, with the money to be raised by taxation, borrowing or by transfer from available funds, including any available state or federal funds. (Mr. Mahoney indicated earlier, the committee would seek a $500,000 eight-year state house serial note.)

The third article asks the voters to amend the General By-Laws so that the Board of Health may require permits and fix and determine fees for use of a sanitary landfill, and other landfill operations.

In other business, Selectmen:

MET WITH several department heads to discuss preliminary budgets for fiscal 1991 in preparation for the May 21st annual town meeting.

Shellfish Constable/Dog Officer Brian Nunes submitted a budget request of $10,000 for shellfish propagation; $25,000 for salaries and wages and $5,000 for expenses (an increase of about $5,000).

Mr. Nunes noted $11,700 was collected in fees last year. "We want to give permit holders something for their fees. Even though some areas are being closed, I have to initiate shellfishing in town according to the state law on shellfish constables." Under expenses, Nunes said, "We need $500. for doing our own water sampling in emergencies rather than waiting for state inspectors."

As dog officer, Mr. Nunes said he and his deputies are doing the best they can. Selectmen's Administrator Lois K. Ennis commented there have been very few complaints since Mr. Nunes took over the dog officer duties.

The $9,800 budget ($5000 salaries and $4800 expenses) may have to be increased as he has to check the New Bedford Animal Rescue League on possible increased rates.

Richard DeTucci, Recreation Committee Chairman, did not present any actual budget figures; however, he said he hoped to get $2,948 for the summer playground program that had to be dropped last year; also, $6,450 yearly salary for the Recreation Director, John Shockro, the same as last year, and part-time wages for beach personnel, tentatively about $19,000. Selectmen explained the parking fees will go into the waterfront Enterprise Fund which should offset some costs.

Mr. DeTucci explained the Mattapoisett Youth Athletic Association (MYAA) has been very cooperative in providing programs and shirts as well as other services. "It is important if we want to run winter programs to have cooperation with the MYAA, who have been a great help."

Chairman Talty said "we feel we can oper-

INTO FAMILY EYE CARE

Can any glasses be used for sports?

Not really. If the sport is passive, such as golf, or fishing there is no problem at all in using your regular prescription glasses. But, an active sport, such as basketball, football, racketball and tennis require protective eyewear. I think most everyone is unaware of the number of people who suffer eye injuries and, frequently, permanent damage to their eyes while playing sports. The sad part is that these injuries could have been prevented if these people had been wearing protective eyewear.

If you are currently wearing glasses and do play a sport, your optician can fit you with a sports goggle which would have the same prescription lenses as your glasses. These lenses, however, will be made of polycarbonate, a material which is unbreakable.

ate the beach program this year. We could have a special town meeting within the annual town meeting to vote funds to pay for beach personnel. We need to advertise as early as April to get college students to apply for summer jobs."

Selectman John DeCosta said "It is important that you and the MYAA are working together. We appreciate the work your committee has done during the past year during the budget crisis."

Harbormaster Steven Mach explained he is sending out bills trying to generate work for the computer system and to start initiating the Enterprise Fund for the waterfront.

Selectmen agreed with the Harbormaster's recommendation to waive the $10 sticker fee for this year only for wharf and skiff space holders until all the information is put into the computer system. Next year the $10. will be paid by wharf space holders and not skiff space holders who now pay $50. for skiff space per year.

Police Department budget - Police Chief James F. Moran requested $671,261 with $588,781 for salaries and $82,480 for expenses - up from $598,158 from fiscal 1990. The Chief noted the budget figure does not include a proposed Water Street beat officer, $5,265; nor a Safety Officer, $2,300. Neither does the budget figure include full-time salary increases, uniform and cleaning increases, and any other articles under negotiation. An additional $1,500 will be allocated for an ambulance billing clerk. "With this new clerk and more aggressive billing practices more income is coming in for the 300 runs averaged during the year", the Chief said.

MET WITH members of the Personnel Board to discuss the salary increases for part-time police officers and the inspection fee increases for inspectors of gas, wire, electrical, plumbing and for the assistant building inspector.

It was noted by Personnel Board Chairman Ridgeway Crouch that in 1985 the Personnel by-law included the classification of a part-time police officer; however, in 1986, it was dropped from the by-law. "We don't know why", said Mr. Crouch. Neither the Selectmen's Administrator, Mrs. Ennis, nor Selectmen knew why the change was made. It was noted that in 1989 the part-time officers were not included in the Police Brotherhood.

Selectmen and the Personnel Board agreed the part-time officers should have wage increases of five percent, the same as other town employees, retroactive to July 1, 1989, from $8.68 per hour to $9.11 per hour.

The boards jointly voted to increase the inspectors' fees from $9. to $12. per hour to take effect July 1, 1980, as there is no money in the fiscal 1990 budget for this purpose.

Police Chief Moran noted the part-time officers are now personally paying $450.

for a three-month EMT course required by the town, plus exam costs and uniform costs. They also have to be recertified every year for CPR and every two years for EMT training. Additionally, there is a restriction on their working in any other town.

Personnel Board member Stephen J. Lombard commented the salaries of elected town officers should be seriously reviewed. "you've got some expeirence people here and their salaries are too low; such as the Highway Surveyor at $33,000 and the Treasurer/Tax Collector at $26,000." Board member Robert Fay noted it's a shame how it works at town meeting when it sounds as if the officials are begging for a raise.

Chairman Talty said the Personnel Board, Finance Committee should also be involved in working out any increases. Even though Selectmen have no control over the salaries of elected officials, they can make recommendations. All Selectmen agreed many of the officials are underpaid for the experience in their positions.

RECEIVED A LETTER from Mr. Thomas M. Reis of Medford expressing his thanks for the "exemplary efforts rendered by the police and rescue squad to Ida Clark of Peases Point on Saturday, January 14."

He writes, "At a time when we hear so much bad news regarding fiscal problems and possible cuts in services, I am pleased to give you some good news about the quality of service offered by your public employees. It was gratifying and comforting to me as well as to Ida's family to see the professionalism, knowledge and team work displayed by all who responded to Ida's emergency. I would especially like to express profound praise for Lt. James A. Santos for his leadership, willingness to take that extra step that made the difference and his professionalism reflects great credit not only on himself but also the entire police force and the town of Mattapoisett."

RECEIVED NOTICE from the Mattapoisett Police Brotherhood that it opposes the proposed cafeteria plan for town employees. The Brotherhood is requesting additional information on the proposed plan in order to make any decision. "At this time, the Police Brotherhood is trying to ratify a Police contract with the town and feel that this issue must be addressed during negotiations."

Congregational Church

If the gospel were taken seriously, we would have more problems than we could ever imagine; some have said we would have more revolutions. But, the gospel is pushed aside because we refuse to look at the pain and suffering of many. It is not enough to only attend church for the sake of our own comfort, focusing only on resurrection while dismissing crucifixion. Moreover, if we claim that society is more complex today than it was in Paul's time, making it easier to follow God's call, then we do not realize what a challenge the gospel has always been. The title of the sermon on February 4th at the Mattapoisett Congregational Church will be "Two Cheers (Maybe) For The Gospel". The time of our worship service is 10:00 a.m. and nursery service is available.

Election Update

TOWN OF MATTAPOISETT

by Virginia Morgan

Robert A. Gingras, who had taken out nomination papers as incumbent to the Board of Assessors, has officially notified Town Clerk Lois K. Ennis he will not seek re-election. He wrote, "In the past seven years, as a member of the Board of Assessors, it was truly a learning experience. I am also very grateful to all the personnel of Town Hall, the various committees that serve the town, and the residents who have supported me."

Evelyn A. Ellis, who had not taken out nomination papers for re-election to the Board of Health, has officially notified the Town Clerk she will not seek a third term.

She has served two three-year terms. She gave as her reasons for not seeking re-election as wanting to spend more time with her family. "Six years is enough as there are other things I want to do", she said. "I am thinking seriously of returning to school for either a Bachelor's Degree in Nursing or a Degree in Fire Science. As a member of the town's Fire Department, this is my second love next to nursing."

In the Mattapoisett School Committee race no one has taken out nomination papers for three members. Dr. John W. Bender is up for re-election for a three-year term. The other two openings are for a two-year term and a one-year term. At the May 1, 1989 annual town meeting voters approved an increase in the membership of the Mattapoisett School Committee from three to five members. The two and one year seats are available for the first time and will rotate until all terms are for three years.

R. William Blasdale has taken out nomination papers for re-election as Moderator. Marshall W. Pryce has filed his papers for re-election as Tree Warden.

Christopher Jaskolka of 23 Tinkham Lane has taken out papers for a seat on the Planning Board for a five-year term. He will be opposing Arthur W. McLean. Mr. Jaskolka sought the post in 1988 but lost to Barry Denham.

February 9 is the last day for taking out nomination papers, and February 13 is the last day for filing papers with the Town Clerk. March 1 is the last day to withdraw papers for the April 3 election.

Design and the Cambridge Art Association.

Ms. MacLeod has taught painting for 20 years and recently developed a new technique, collagraph intaglio, at the DeCordova Museum. She now offers a class at the Marion Art Center in mixed media for all levels on Wednesday mornings..

Anne MacLeod has won many prizes and has exhibited in galleries throughout New England and the west. Her work is in many international private collections as well as the New Boston City Hall, the DeCordova Museum and the Oklahoma Art Center.

The inspiration for many of the artist's work is found during visits to prehistoric or archeological sites. Sketching and watercolors are done on these locations, later to be developed into paintings and collagraphs. She looks forward to meeting new people and new challenges in this area.

The exhibition will run through March 2nd. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Friday, 1 to 5 p.m.; and Saturdays, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. There is no admission charge.

STUDENTS MAKE POTTERY GIFTS

Even though Christmas 1989 has passed, at Old Hammondtown School Ms. Aiken's 5th grade class will remember the imprinted shell-seaweed salt marsh pottery gifts they made in Mrs. Thayer's art class. After a bisque kiln firing, the pieces were ready to glaze. They resembled ancient shell fossils. The Mattapoisett Parent-Teachers' Club provided funds to cover the cost of the bisque and glaze firing, because the school does not have a proper kiln.

This integrated science-arts project began in October when students took a trip to Shining Tides beach as part of a Coastal Ecology Unit. Ms. Aiken and Mrs. Thayer were accompanied by chaperones Mrs. Courtemanch and Mr. Finch. While on a siening trip to gather fish specimens for their salt water aquarium, the children collected shells and seaweed such as Atlantic Bay scallops, common Atlantic slippers, false angel wings, blue mussels, and rockweed for their pottery. Mrs. Thayer learned the Salt Marsh pottery techniques from John Powell at Saltmarsh Pottery Limited in South Dartmouth. The gifts were wrapped and

In language class each student wrote an essay about their reactions to giving their gift or their parents' reactions upon receiving the salt marsh pottery. Michelle Sheppard was so excited about giving her gift to her mother, she asked her to open it before anything else. Neil Stark's dad said it was the "best homemade" gift ever. Bobby Knight wrote, "I wish I could give my mom such a wonderful gift every Christmas." Jay Lanagan couldn't wait until Christmas to give the gift to his mother. Her reaction was "Wow! I love it." Through projects such as these, students are learning the importance of the inter-connectedness of the web of existence in the fragile coastal environment.

Project GROW

SCREENING CLINIC

Project GROW will be holding a screening clinic for three and four year olds residing in the towns of Marion, Mattapoisett, and Rochester. The clinic will be held on Friday, February 9th, at the Sippican School. The purpose of the screening is to identify young children with potential learning problems.

Funds to offer this monthly screening are provided by the Massachusetts Department of Education. Project GROW staff will conduct the screening in the pre-school classroom at the Sippican School.

The screening will look at the child's thinking skills, speech and language development, memory skills, coordination, hearing and vision. If you suspect your child is having difficulty in any of these areas, or simply wonder if his/her development is "on target", call 748-0100 for an appointment.

Screening clinics will be offered regularly throughout the school year.

of 150.46 feet and 150.50 feet, a rear line of 265.91 feet and 266.85 feet frontage on Nicky's Lane (a 15-foot wide right of way formerly known as Old Slough Road), containing approximately 40,037 feet. An existing two-story wood building with a footprint of 24 feet by 40 feet is located on the property. The first floor is used as a storage facility for Chase Canopy Company, a business use; and the second floor is a single-family dwelling unit used as a residence and office.

The proposed new construction is a one-story wood commercial building with a footprint of 40 feet by 60 feet for business use of Chase Canopy Company. It was agreed at the public hearing that the proposed use is not residential. Construction has begun and the footprint of the foundation as poured and backfilled has resulted in a street set-back at the northwest corner area of 64.3 feet. The petitioners seek a variance of one foot.

Abutting landowners appeared at the hearing in person and by letter stating that they did not oppose the petition. No one appeared in opposition. The Board found that owing to circumstances relating to the shape and placement of the structure on the lot, and especially affecting such structure but not affecting the general business district, a literal enforcement of the street set-back requirement would involve substantial hardship, financial or otherwise. The petition was granted.

The second petition was filed by George U. and Doris J. MacGarvey of Framingham for their property at 8 Bay View Avenue. The petitioners were granted an amendment

The Mattapoisett Inn

Overlooking Mattapoisett Harbor

Marlene and I would like to thank the many customers and friends for their tremendous consideration and support during our recent bereavement. Your thoughtful cards, flowers, prayers, and donations to the Cancer Society have been a wonderful comfort at this time.

"Old Pop" worked here at the Inn for eleven years and was numbered among our "charter" employees. He made a lot of friends during this time because of his kind consideration and genuine caring of others. I often thought Dad looked a lot like the old guy on the sign which hangs in front of the Inn, and maybe that's why I never changed it. Perhaps it was meant to be that way so that he will remain in our hearts, watching over the Inn, and the comings and goings of all his friends.

Thanks for the memories, Dad.

to a previous variance by striking the seasonal use limitation contained in a condition applicable to a single-family dwelling in the Brant Beach section in the Waterfront 30 District.

The lot containing 3,600 square feet was in existence and lawfully non-conforming at the time of the adoption of the zoning by-laws in 1967. The petitioners proposed a 23 foot by 20 foot addition to the structure for expansion of the two bedrooms in 1986 and this variance was granted. The building was insulated and a heating system installed. The restriction placed on the variance in 1986 included the use of the premises shall remain for warm weather use. Any plans for conversion must be brought to the Appeals Board.

The Board found that the year-round use may be allowed without substantial detriment to the public and without nullifying or substantially derogating from the intent or purpose of the by-law.

The third petition was an application for a special permit and also for a variance from setback requirements for demolition or removal of an existing house trailer with sunroom-porch and for construction of a new two-story wood frame single family dwelling on property of the petitioners, William J. and Thelma L. Storer of New Bedford, at their property at 36 Pico Beach Road in the Waterfront 30 District.

A 35-foot house trailer and a 30 foot by 12 foot sunroom-porch having a footprint of approximately 600 square feet, together with two sheds are located on the property. At the time the zoning by-law was adopted the former lot on which the house trailer was then located contained less than 5,000 square feet. In 1981 the Storers added another lot to the property resulting in the 5,200 square foot lot. The house trailer and porch have been used as a seasonal single family residence since 1956.

The Storers proposed to demolish or remove the trailer and porch and construct a new two-story two bedroom wood frame single family dwelling. The proposed dwelling would have a 16 foot street setback from Pico Beach Road, a north side setback of 37 feet, a rear setback of 10 feet and a south side setback of four feet, taking into account the extension out from the foundation of the second floor balcony of a deck, bridge and deck.

At the public hearing a number of neighboring landowners appeared in strong support of the application. No one appeared in opposition. It was noted neighboring lots are vacant and unbuildable. Other lots are either vacant or have been developed by construction of single-family dwellings on lots ranging in size from 7,000 to 9,750 square feet. Because of beach encroachment, the upland area of waterfront developed lots is substantially smaller than these ranges. The Board found that the standard of the neighborhood so established does not require a larger size lot than that of the Storers' lot for development of a house in replacement of a trailer. The house would be a substantial improvement to the lot and the neighborhood. The Board found that owing to the solid conditions (rock and ledge), shape and topography of the land, the proposed structure would not affect the waterfront district in which it is located. A literal enforcement of the zoning by-law would involve substantial financial hardship to the Storers; therefore, the special permit was granted and the variance was

Saturday Youth Festival

All parents have heard their children's all-too-familiar complaint, "There's nothing to do!" Just once, what if a magic red ball suddenly appeared and whisked bored children off to a fantasy land?

That's exactly what happens to Becky, the young girl in Mermaid Theatre's enchanting black light puppet theatre production of The Red Ball at New Bedford's Zeiterion Theatre February 10th at 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. The performances, part of the Zeiterion's Saturday Youth Theatre Festival, are sponsored by Fairhaven Savings Bank.

Mermaid Theatre of Nova Scotia is Atlantic Canada's major theatre for family audiences. The company crosses Canada yearly and has performed in all 10 provinces as well as England, Wales, the U.S. Mexico, Australia and Japan. adaptation of Kipling's Just So Stories last fall.

Using one's imagination is the message in this modern fairy tale. When Becky complains about being bored, her mother gives her a toy box. Seeing that the toys are actually things like oven mitts and egg beaters, Becky grows even more unhappy. She can't believe her mother expects her to play with such stupid toys.

Suddenly, a magic red ball turns up, and with its help, Becky starts to fantasize and her daydreams take on lives of their own. To her surprise, the oven mitts turn into fish and the kitchen table turns into a moose.

The special lighting makes Becky's daydreaming all the more real. The puppeteers are dressed in black and virtually invisible on the darkened stage. The puppets, highlighted in fluorescent paint, glow beneath the black light. Becky, the kitchen table/moose and all the other animated objects cavort about the stage with surprising grace.

At one point Becky's head takes off from her body, leading her on a merry chase while she demands to be put back together again. The show is recommended for children ages 5 through 12, who can laugh along with Becky's misadventures.

Tickets to The Red Ball, February 10th at 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m., are $4.50 general admission. Tickets are available through the box office at 994-2900. Group rates are also available. Single tickets are available through Ticketmaster at 1-931-2000 (no area code needed), or at all Ticketmaster locations.

USS MASSACHUSETTS MEMORIAL

The Battleship MASSACHUSETTS, located in Fall River, is the Commonwealth's World War II Memorial. On her main deck is a memorial area in which are inscribed the names of more than 13,000 Massachusetts servicemen and women who lost their lives during that war.

The U.S.S. MASSACHUSETTS Memorial Committee is undertaking a refurbishment of the memorial area and planning for a rededication ceremony for Memorial Day of this year. Towards this end, we are in the process of compiling an up-to-date roster of surviving next-of-kin so that we might possibly include them in activities associated with the rededication ceremony. We would hope that the relatives of our honored dead may make themselves known to us.

The following information is desired: Name of deceased servicemen/women; home town at time of entry into the armed forces; name and current address(es) of the next-of-kin.

"Dreamgirls" Review

by David B. Boyce

Daedalus Productions, Inc. has been mounting touring companies of Broadway shows for eighteen years and recently sent to the Zeiterion Theatre in New Bedford its production of "Dreamgirls".

The original version of "Dreamgirls" played on Broadway, opening in 1981. It told the story, albeit a fictional account, of the rise of a black, all-girl pop singing group, bearing a remarkably close resemblance to the Supremes. In fact, some controversy was generated prior to "Dreamgirls" opening, due to certain similarities in the careers and personalities of the Supremes and those of the fictional group, the Dreams. In retrospect, that controversy seems a tempest in a teapot.

Without recounting the full plot, suffice to say the Dreamettes, as they are called at first, go through all the various stages of development to reach stardom. They meet up with a promoter, Curtis Taylor, Jr., with dollar signs in his eyes, who cares more for the business end than in the personalities he deals with. Curtis wants to make headway into the music business, and his methods are calculated, unfeeling and selfserving. Effie White, the lead singer, is blind to the darker side of Curtis and falls in love with him, only to be betrayed by his burgeoning interest in Deena Jones. Curtis, it seems, sees Deena as lead singer. He replaces Effie, without telling her. She is left out on her own but, eventually establishes a solo career. As the Dreams advance, building a huge audience for their records and concerts, we witness personality conflicts between artists and management, as well as the triumphs and letdowns associated with building a career in pop music.

The Daedalus production brings in a very solid cast. Daron Davis, as Curtis, offers an interesting portrait of a man obsessed with his own vision. The vision can be bent with the right cash offer and Davis keenly balances the coldly uncaring side of Curtis with that of the smooth hustler who cons his way to the top. Capathia Jenkins, as Effie, is a powerhouse singer, wrenching emotion from her songs and making believable her hurt and frustration. Ms. Jenkins, walking in the footsteps of Jennifer Holliday who created the role on Broadway, has a tough act to follow. Ms. Holliday catapulted to stardom with this one role and her own extraordinary vocal abilities. Yet, after just a few years, Ms. Holliday has all but vanished from the scene. Ms. Jenkins, however, ably makes the role her own and wins over her audience.

Rosalind Tonean White, Tanesha Marie Gary and Nicole Powell make up the Dreams. They are more than adequate in these roles, although Ms. Gary is sometimes flat when reaching for her higher notes. Ms. White has a good comic sense, while Ms. Powell had the most convincing presence as the lucky replacement. Philip Michael Baskervile played C.C. White, Effie's brother and guiding creative force behind the music of the Dreams. Mr. Baskerville was a delight, with a voice like warm honey and a manner as charming. Lastly, Rondell Jeremy Ryan, playing a James Brown-type night-club singer, for whom the Dreamettes do background vocals on their way up the music ladder, was effective, though not the firecracker performance that was possible within the character as scripted.

Overall, this was a good production of a show that is becoming increasingly dated with each passing year. The Motown sound is, perhaps, not best teamed up with the straight narrative of the show's book. After about an hour and half, much of the music began to sound alike and the staging also became somewhat repetitive. Effie's song, and the signature number of the show, is "And I'm Telling You I'm Not Going". It's a heartfelt, gutsy blues song and has the most depth of any in the score. "Dreamgirls" needs more contrast, more depth and more glitz to keep it more interesting.

February 21st and 22nd, Band of Outsiders (97 minutes), 1964. A pig-tailed student is attracted to a sinister hoodlum and friend. They try to rob the girl's house. As they progress the comedy of errors becomes a fatal escapade. French.

Theatre One's Dinner Theatre

"The Mind with the Dirty Man" is being staged by Theatre One's Dinner Theatre for the month of February. A great Valentine's gift that will guarantee an evening of fine dining and loads of laughter.

The play finds Mr. Wayne Stone's filmmaker son, Clayton, returning home to purchase the local cinema to exhibit his x-rated films. Not only will Clayton be running his latest movie, "The Shoe Fetish" (this only starts the comedy), but he plans to marry the Porno Queen Star of the film right there in town in front of the movie house on opening night under the searchlights.

These and other events are jocularly resolved in an outrageous turnabout, laugh-packed ending that makes its point about the hypocrisy of conventional American mores.

Performances at the Four Quarter Restaurant, Route 105 in Lakeville, will be Sunday evenings, February 4th and 11th; Friday and Saturday evenings, February 2nd and 3rd and 9th and 10th; Cabaret Night (show only) February 1st and 8th. Reservations only on the dinner theatre; for further Massachusetts has some of the most interesting and exciting historic structures in the nation, and photographs of some of these structures can be viewed at the Bank of Boston, 700 Pleasant Street, New Bedford. The Bank of Boston is sponsoring a photo exhibit that is currently traveling across the state and will be in New Bedford until February 13th. The photo exhibit was created and designed by the Massachusetts Historical Commission (MHC) and the Historic American Buildings Survey (HABS).

The photographs in the exhibit were taken by skilled photographer Jack Boucher, one of the nation's premier historic building photographers. Boucher has produced an estimated 55,000 photographs of more than 6,000 structures in 49 states, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. He has been the architectural photographer for HABS for 27 years. His work is displayed in the 39-image photo exhibit.

The photos were taken with a Linhof view camera and Schneider lens equipment, and were all developed and printed by Boucher. Boucher's work is presented in large

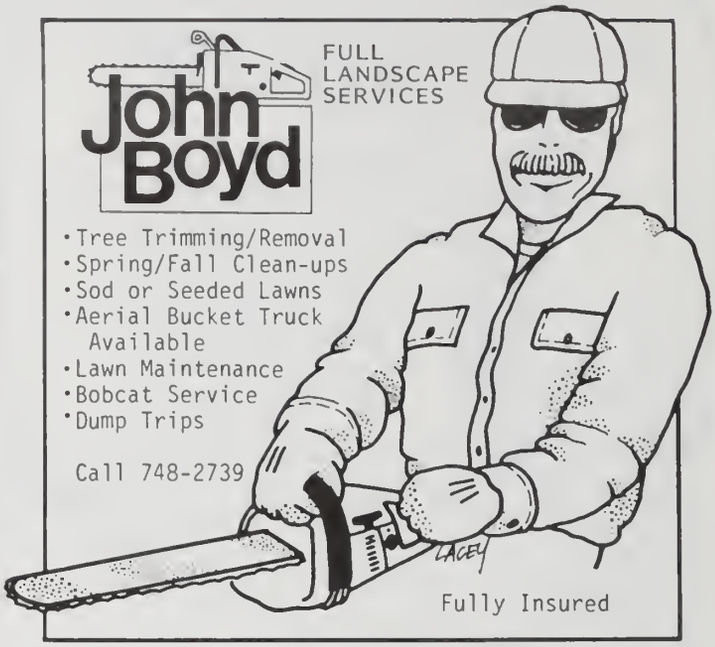
The diversified list of structures included in the exhibit spans four centuries. Examples include: Faneuil Hall, Boston; the Day and Night Diner, Palmer; the Gropius House, Lincoln; Gay Head Light House, Martha's Vineyard; Ames Free Library, Easton; and the Ox Barn in Tyringham.

"The Massachusetts assignment was especially interesting for me because of the wide range of periods and styles represented in the structures I photographed," said Boucher. "Twentieth century buildings are often overlooked or ignored, but the MHC has been diligent in protecting contemporary landmarks before they're lost or altered."



The Massachusetts Historical Commission was established by the legislature in 1963 to identify, evaluate, and protect the Commonwealth's important historical and archaeological assets. MHC administers assistance to local historical commissions and Certified Local Governments, and provides grants and technical assistance to public agencies, communities, the public, and property owners and developers using federal tax credits for historic rehabilitation projects.

Policy, Non-AFS Foreign Students

Over the years, the Old Rochester Regional High School has had a tradition of hosting foreign students through the American Field Service and recently won recognition for these efforts from the United Nations Division of Youth. However, in recent years, other organizations sponsoring students have made arrangements with individuals in the community to have students attend our high school. Some of these arrangements have been made at the last minute without sufficient notice. In order to facilitate student entry, the committee wishes to clarify for the community its policy regarding registration of non-AFS foreign students. At its meeting of January 9, 1990, the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee adopted the following policy, which is presented here for your information. Should you have any questions please feel free to call Mr. James Egan, the high school Principal.

The School Committee authorizes the enrollment on a tuition-waived basis of students sponsored by the American Field Service. In a given school year, the committee will accept no more than five (5) students on a tuition-waived basis. Tuition may be waived for other foreign students if their numbers do not impact class

WINTER IN THE PINE BARRENS
BY CROSS COUNTRY SKI

Come glide through Myles Standish State Forest and explore the largest continuous area of woodland east of the Quabbin Reservoir. This cross-country ski tour through the pine barrens is sponsored by the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies. The program will be held on Sunday, February 11th, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. This is an event that we wouldn't want the weather to spoil, so if there is not enough snow, we will walk.

The pine barrens of Myles Standish, with their vast expanse of uninterrupted wilderness, afford a wonderful habitat for many animals. will take place in the White Home Living Room at St. Luke's Hospital of New Bedford.

Recent studies have indicated that the impairment of attention may often be an early symptom in the development of substance abuse, depression and schizophrenia. Dr. Mirsky will present a model used in neuropsychology that has been developed to measure the "elements" of attention, and he will provide examples based on ongoing research. "Attention elements" not only include the capacity to focus, but the ability to encode information and to sustain as well as shift focus when necessary.

NON-TRADITIONAL EMPLOYMENT

Non-traditional employment - most often involving women employed in jobs which have 75 percent or more positions filled by men - continues to be a focus of both federal and state law. According to the most recent statistics, women in non-traditional positions now account for nine percent of the over 52 million female members of the work force.

male students. Currently, 28 students have been identified as already enrolled in non-traditional shops, with girls training in drafting, machine shop, electricity and offset printing and boys in health careers and data processing.

Support groups have been formed to assist these students. Meeting twice monthly, the groups, led by Outreach Recruiter Irene Duprey-Gutierrez, provide the opportunity for discussion of relevant issues on programs and career choices, invite speakers into the school, and view films and other materials. Field trips to other vocational technical schools and to shops and businesses are planned.

O.C. SENIOR RECEIVES AWARD

For the past four years Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School has recognized its top ranking senior by presenting the student with the prestigious Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents' Certificate of Academic Excellence.

Tara L. Medeiros of Rochester received the award at the Advisory Board Dinner meeting held at Old Colony. The award was presented by Superintendent-Director John T. Oliveira. The Certificate of Academic Excellence is awarded to one Senior in each Massachusetts High School who ranks in the top 5% of his/her class and has exhibited academic and vocational excellence as well as active participation in school activities.

Tara has already received two other awards earlier this year. She was the school's nominee for the Daughter of the American Revolution's "Good Citizen Award" as well as the Principal's Leadership Award.

Tara joins Old Colony's previous M.A.S.S. Academic Excellence Award recipients, Charles Napier of Carver, a junior at Northeastern University; Michael Gajewski

Q. Recently I started seeing dark spots and thread-like strands before my eyes. What causes this? Is it serious?

A. You are seeing spots and floaters. They are usually harmless but sometimes they signal a serious eye problem in need of prompt attention.

These include such vision-threatening conditions as retinal detachment, other retinal disorders, cataracts, diabetes, high blood pressure or leukemia.

You should, therefore, make an appointment with your optometrist for a thorough eye examination covering eye health as well as your vision. Be sure to mention the dark spots and strands you are seeing.

More than likely you are seeing harmless particles of protein or other natural materials floating in the fluid inside your eyes. But you need a professional diagnosis.

Even if your optometrist diagnoses the spots as harmless, have them re-evaluated every year or more often, if you notice a change.

MARKER TWINCAM.

Technology that makes a difference

All TWINCAM bindings mechanically separate the two fundamental binding functions - RETENTION and RELEASE.

SEPARATE RETENTION CAM

Superb retention performance precisely controlled inside the binding by separate cams. The toe cups, stainless steel AFD and boot move together to absorb multiple shocks.

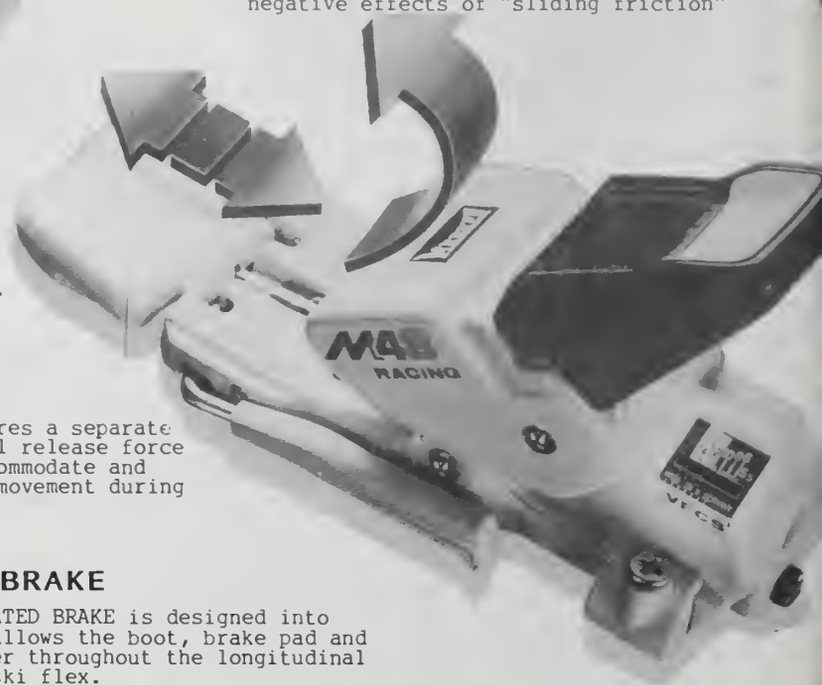
This assures fast, consistent return-to-center and improved ski control.

SEPARATE RELEASE CAMS

All TWINCAM bindings have additional cams which individually control the left and right lateral release. FULL SPECTRUM TWINCAM bindings have an additional Full Spectrum cam. In a vertical release, the boot moves backward against the heel until the boot toe activates the Full Spectrum cam, which opens both toe cups allowing the boot to exit at any angle in a 180° Full Spectrum.

GLIDING AFD

The Gliding AFD virtually eliminates the negative effects of "sliding friction"



AUTOMATIC TOE HEIGHT ADJUSTMENT

Provides precise boot binding contact, added convenience and improved ski control.

VERTICAL ENERGY CONTROL SYSTEM - VECS -

Advanced toe-heel interaction features a separate cam linking the function of the heel release force and forward pressure springs to accommodate and control the force of backward boot movement during a vertical toe release.

GLIDING INTEGRATED BRAKE

Marker's GLIDING INTEGRATED BRAKE is designed into the heel housing. This allows the boot, brake pad and heel cup to move together throughout the longitudinal travel range improving ski flex.

MARKER

Improved protection and skiing enjoyment.
